Online bingo is constantly growing in popularity because it's fun to play and is easily accessible. The growing popularity of bingo has encouraged bingo site developers to create new ways for people to enjoy the classic game. One of the newest and most exciting developments to hit bingo sites is bingo tournaments. Certain bingo sites offer these tournaments, which give you the chance to win a huge range of prizes. These tournaments offer loads more prizes than standard bingo games: you can win some amazing prizes, from gadgets and holidays to bonus points and, of course, cash prizes. You'll find that these tournaments usually happen over a specific period of time. Some, for example, may happen for an hour a day, while others may last a couple of days or even a whole week or longer.

Free bingo tournaments

Quite a few bingo sites have free bingo tournaments, which are great because you can still win great prizes without having to spend any of your own money. The prizes do tend to be smaller and of less value than the prizes in paying tournaments, though you can still have fun participating and the prizes themselves are still great to win. These free tournaments are usually only offered as part of a welcome package to a bingo site, so most of the time, it's only newbies that get to play free tournaments. However, many sites have regular free tournaments available for regular players.

Bingo tournaments with entrance fees

Most bingo tournaments require you to pay a fee to enter. You will then gain entry to specific bingo games at specific times to take part in the tournament. The best thing about bingo tournaments with entrance fees is that they have much better prizes and much higher cash payouts than free bingo tournaments. When you play these tournaments, you earn points by winning games. Your points are added to a leader board and after a certain amount of time, or after a certain number of games have been played, whoever has the most points on the leader board will win the top prize. For a lot of tournaments, there is more than just one prize; first place will obviously win the biggest prize, but there will be worthy prizes for the runners-up.

Bingo tournaments played in normal games

Some bingo sites run their tournaments a little bit differently. Instead of paying a fee to enter, you simply enter as many as of the tournament's games as you can. As with pay-to-enter bingo games, you'll win points and these will be added to the leader board. What sets this type of bingo tournament apart from others is that you simply play bingo games as usual and some of these happen to be part of the tournament. So as you play normal bingo, you get the chance to win the normal game's prizes and the tournament's prizes. Many of the most popular bingo sites have exciting tournaments that are definitely worth entering because they're good fun and they give you the chance to win some amazing prizes.
