
How does mobile bingo work?

Written by Matt Kennedy | Last updated: 27 March 2026

You're stuck on a boring train ride on your way to work; it's just another boring morning commute. You pull out your phone and decide it's much more interesting than pretending to ignore the other commuters. You don't log on to Facebook nor do you scour YouTube for funny clips. Instead you decide to play mobile bingo. You find yourself getting into it and 'boom' just like that you find the bingo Gods looking down on you – your cards are certainly serving you well. After a few moments later you discover all your numbers have been crossed off – not only this, you've just hit it big and won yourself the progressive jackpot too. In a matter of a few minutes on a seemingly boring commute, you've managed to scoop up thousands of pounds in prize money. Sounds tempting, right? These days it's becoming increasingly popular to play online games directly from your mobile, and this includes playing bingo online from your phone, but how does it work?

Mobile bingo is growing in popularity

If you happen to look over your shoulder while on your commute, it's likely you'll find others playing online bingo from their phones as well - it really is more popular than you think. It's so easy, everyone's doing it and all you really need is a compatible phone such as an iPhone or an Android. Tablets and iPads work just as well. Today, the majority of big online bingo sites have mobile versions, meaning you don't have to miss out on a big jackpot win. You'll find yourself with more freedom; you'll be able to play it anywhere whether it's on a tram, train, bus or at your office desk (just don't let your boss see you).

Places you can go, places you can play...

There are a number of sites that offer mobile bingo these days. The choice can be quite overwhelming, so here are a few of the more popular ones:

ChitChat Bingo

Sign up to ChitChat Bingo and get rewarded with a whopping £40 bonus for free - £20 is for the traditional bingo games and the other 20 is to log on and play bingo online via your mobile – how cool is that? There's a variety of fun games, and the mobile version includes slots, 90 ball and 75 ball halls, and even a casino.

Biscuit Bingo

Everyone loves biscuits, and you'll love biscuit bingo too. When you sign up, you'll have the chance to claim £15 in free credit. You'll get the chance to play many cool and popular bingo-esque games. Join the friendly online bingo community, participate in team games, give the slot machines a whirl, try your luck at the casino, and much more.

“When the fun stops, stop!”

Bingo from your mobile can be exciting, especially when you experience the thrill of winning when you're in public, but like anything, it can become addictive. Be responsible and monitor how much you go online to play bingo. If you feel yourself getting addicted, contact a charity, such as Gamcare and they'll be able to advise you of some steps to take.
